Movie Review Guidelines

You are required to write a movie review (minimum of five paragraphs). This review will be of the movie Taken. You will have class time to work on this. Good copy due: Friday February 11th

Include the following elements in your movie review:

1. In the opening paragraph state the title, and BRIEFLY summarize the plot of the movie. Describe how you truly feel about the film. What is your honest reaction to the film? Did you like/dislike it? Was it confusing? Exciting? Suspenseful? Boring?
2. In the next three paragraphs analyze the literary, dramatic, and cinematic aspects of the film. Please use examples from the movie to support your analysis. Please refer to my model movie review to make sure you understand the directions.

Literary – The literary aspects pertain to the story, dialogue and characters. Was there a good story? Believable characters? Good dialogue? Did the main character change throughout the film? What was the main conflict and how was it resolved? Did the story interest you?

Use specific examples from the movie to support your analysis.

Dramatic – The dramatic aspects pertain to the acting, sets, locations and costumes. Were the actors good? Was the setting or location interesting? Did the actors wear costumes? Was there a famous movie star in the film?

Use specific examples from the movie to support your analysis.

Cinematic – The cinematic aspects pertain to the camera angles, composition, lighting, music and sound effects. Were there interesting camera angles, or cool video and sound effects? Did the music match the film?

Use specific examples from the movie to support your analysis.

3. In the conclusion, rate the film (Two thumbs up! A+ Five Stars!, etc.) and state whether or not you would recommend the film to a friend.
